Who Is Henry H. Klein ?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Tell me what do you think of this Klein fellow. I have been discussing him with several of my friends, and we don't agree. Why is he so outspoken against the Jews? What has he to gain? Isn't he taking an awful chance in his business?

Cordially, HERMAN D. CRANDALL.

Dear Mr. Crandall:

In reply to your question about Klein:

I never met the man. The first thing I read about him was his two letters to Congress demanding FDR's impeachment and naming the charges against the President. It impressed me because Noble and Jones were twice prosecuted and convicted, once in federal court in Los Angeles and a second time in Sacramento county court, because they had held a mock impeachment trial in Los Angeles during which FDR was convicted of having misused the powers of his office.

I wondered at the time why a Jew can get away with a thing for which nine other people were sent to jail.

I have studied Klein's impeachment letters carefully and am sure he has the goods on the President, except that the Congress cares not and dares not do its duty. From the contents of the letters Klein reveals himself as talented and fearless American Jew.

There is much confusion in the minds of the average people in the U. S. A. concerning Jews. A line should be drawn somewhere, but till some outstanding event occurs to mark a certain type of Jew, as for eaxample Quisling marks a definite character, the confusion persists. Judas Ischariot was used during Luther's days as a typical Jew, but such lines do not really demark the decent type from the criminal.

From descriptions in the news I take it that Klein has the proverbial hook nose, and is a man of small stature. I have been raised among Jews in Czernowitz, Bucovina, and have travelled extensively in Palestine and the Levant, so I know something about the type.

I would say that Klein is what is called an Aramean (Armenian) type of Jew. The Arameans were a mixture of Aryans, Iranians to be exact, with Semitic nomads, or what today is known as Arabs, with the Aryan blood prevailing, but the features of the Armenian Semites in evidence. They are the real Hebrew stock whose parent was Abram. They are the monotheists, followers of Principle.

Then there are the vari-colored Mongrels, the average Jew. They are the offspring of the bad custom of cohabiting with concubines of Mongolian and African descent and accepting the offspring into the tribe. You will see those Jews are yellow skinned, Mongolian mark, or kinky haired, swarthy lipped, nostrils Negro style and eyes to match.

One has to be careful when deciphering the Afro-Jew's marks as distinguished from the Aramean Hebrew. Both types have the hook nose and swarthy lips, but one is Negro-base, the other Aryan-Semite. Materiality is expressed in swarthiness and the hook-nose denotes "grip", the bulldog-grip that never lets go. Practice will teach one to look for confirming marks when one is in doubt about the hook-nosed Jew.

The Aramean Hebrew is the stock from which the Prophets came. They always denounced the bastards and their perversion of law and religion. And the mongrels stoned and killed the prophets. The whole history of Old Testament Bible lore is one long line of this denunciation and retribution. Naturally the low breed exceeded in numbers the well bred and as a consequence the term Jew became a byword of treachery and violence, in any man's language.

You will find that the descendants of Aramean Hebrews, even today, despise the mode of thinking and acting of the Afro-Mongolian Jews whom they call Kikes. One needs to read only the Anglo-Jewish press to discover the eternal battle between the two types.

The confusion which Jesus also tried to straighten out in John 8, where he draws the line between the descendants of Abram and the bastard result of concubinage and their murderous lust to force "equality" within the tribe by force and violence, is used by many unscrupulous demagogues to mark all Jews with Cain's seal.

It is about time that we do the preliminary work to clarify the distinction.

From time immemorial abuse of power and opportunity brought reprisals upon Judah. Moses himself ordered 3000 Jews decapitated. He kept them prisoners for 42 years on the Sinai peninsula. Then follows the Babylon captivity and finally the dispersion..

Demagogues have always pointed to the Jews as the universal scape goat to deflect the blood lust of the mob from the misdeeds of bad government. It was and is a common practice in Europe. The same idea is thriving in the U. S. A.

But in San Diego we have initiated an attitude which will break the spell. A lower court judge ran for higher office against a Mongolian Jew who abused the trust placed in him by fellow judges on the bench to feather his political nest, but came a cropper. Instead of the Mosaic attitude of tooth for tooth, our San Diego motto was give the Jew his rights but NO MORE. That settled the whole question to perfection.

I assume Klein to be an Aramean descendant of the line of Abram, of the line of Prophets who were stoned by the mob, He knows the outfit and gives it to them where it hits the bull's eye.

In all seriousness I am concerned about the future of Jewry in the U. S. A. They seem to exemplify the Greek proverb "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad".

Nothing but aggressive education on our part will prevent a repetition of pogroms here. It will take great courage to stand by our oath to the Constitution and protect the Jews in their rights and NO MORE.

Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN.

GISSIBL CLEARED DEFENDANTS

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Since Peter Gissibl as the big hope for Jewry to testify against the 29 Defendants in the fictitious 'Sedition and Conspiracy' Trial at Washington, D. C. turned out to be for the kosher set of this Nation such a big disappointment it is to be expected that the pro-Jewish element of Waukeegan, Ill., where Mr. Gissibl has a tailoring shop, undoubtedly will withdraw their patronage (if he ever did get any from the circles referred to). And for this very reason I would like to make the suggestion to your readers, and in that respect in particular to those in and around Waukeegan, Ill., to support Mr. Gissibl through their patronage whenever this is possible. Mr. Gissibl's attestments clearly DISPROVED all and every claim made in that notorious Indictment against those 29 Defendants, and if Gissibl spoke the truth, which we believe he has, there is nothing in his assertions that any of the Rogges, Burnses or Eichers will be able to use in their attempted substantiation of the charges contained in said Indictment.

Yours truly — — → OBSERVER.

WILL ISAACS BE BEATEN?

Some people are worried about a preponderance of Democratic registrations in this county concerning the congressional election. But the outlook for the Republican candidate against the incumbent Ed Izac (ne Isaacs) is quite favorable. Here is the last official count of the votes in the primary election.

Ed V. Izac	26,354	(Democratic)
	5,344	(Republican)
Total	31,698
Against Izac	15,226	(Democratic)
	34,627	(Republican)
Total	49,853

We can see that one out of every three are against Izac on the Democratic ticket alone, while the Republican vote against Izac is greater than the combined Republican and Democratic votes for Izac. If James Abbey pulls no boner, from the figures his chances are shown to be better than 3 to 2 against Izac. Evidently San Diego county is sick of the Newdeal rubber-stamp Congressman who is ashamed of his own name and ancestry and hides behind an alias. If his brother hadn't happened to die most people would never have known his native name nor why he is such a staunch Newdealer.

FEDERAL CITY

NATION FIRST, PARTY SECOND, CANDIDATE THIRD - - G. O. P. AND DEWEY . . . . SUGGESTED AMENDMENT . . . . . EXCESS WOMEN . . . .

By Washington Adams

WASHINGTON, June 5,—The G. O. P. has this year the opportunity of its life for its greatest victory, if it will champion the ancient American tradition and principle of a "GOVERNMENT OF LAWS AND NOT OF MEN".

Only through a government of LAWS can we have a real republic. A government of MEN, of oligarchs and fuehrers, always means some form of dictatorship. The wiser men of all parties in America are coming to see this great truth and to champion it more and more.

When a leading candidate of the G. O. P. is asked, "Do you approve of an alliance with such-and such nation?"—he should answer as follows:

"If I believed in one-man government, I could answer you. No man should try to dictate to the American people. If the American people, through their representatives in the United States Senate, WANT an alliance with some country or countries, they can get it by a two-thirds vote. I would have no veto power over them.

"My own opinion is simply ONE AMERICAN'S opinion. I am willing to give that opinion to my fellow-citizens, for whatever they consider it to be worth. The combined opinion of the intelligent citizenship is greater than my opinion, and I proudly and gladly will yield to it.

"This applies to all public questions.

"I would be unwilling to run for the position of elected fuehrer or dictator.

"We have had enough of that. Let's get back to the Republic.

"No more giving away our property without the consent of Congress and in violation of the law; no more pledging ALL our property to some foreign nation or nations.

"The President, under our Constitution, is the SERVANT, not the master, of the people. When, as a people we forget and abandon that principle, our sun will have set as a Republic.

"The President's sworn duty is to execute the LAWS of the nation, which have been enacted by the people through their Congress."

Governor Thomas E. Dewey has made an able governor of New York, our most populous State. He gained great popularity over the nation in 1940 by campaigning against Roosevelt's dangerous foreign policies; Dewey undoubtedly then spoke for 80% of the American people in their desire to stay out of foreign wars.

If Dewey should become a "second Willkie", going around with a "ME TOO" grin on his face, running, as Willkie did, for the position of "elected dictator", spouting about what he intends to do as the "ruler" of America, and promising to tie our chariot to that of some foreign country, he will undoubtedly be defeated.

THE GREAT ISSUE OF 1944 IS WHETHER AMERICA WILL RETURN TO A REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT—"of the people, for the people, and by the people" as the Republican Lincoln said, or continue on downward toward a "camarilla" oligarchy, one-man government, the subjugation and degradation of the people, and finally COMPLETE DEPOTISM!

The Republican party is today the sole hope of the people, and it must stand firm and strong for AMERICAN PRINCIPLES as the great plank of its platform, and must wage its battle on the principle at stake AND NOT ON ITS MAN, who, no matter who he is, will appear weak beside the office-glamored despot in a race for "elected MONARCH".

Fighting on PRINCIPLE and NOT ON THE "ONE MAN" IDEA, THE G. O. P. CAN WIN WITH ANY ONE OF A DOZEN CANDIDATES.

PRESIDENT AND WAR

Herewith is my suggested Constitutional Amendment, to discourage war:

AMENDMENT XXIV—DISCOURAGE WAR

Section 1. Immediately upon the United States becoming involved in a shooting war with a foreign nation or in the suppression of armed insurrection by force, the Presdient then in office shall become ineligible further to serve, shall vacate his office, and his constitutional successor shall become President, to serve out his term.

Section 2. (a) As soon as war shall break out in any foreign country, any and every United States official in the position of Member of the cabinet, United States Senators, Representatives, Ambassadors and ministers to foreign courts, who were born in the foreign country at war with another foreign country or with this country, shall become ineligible further to hold office during such war or wars, every such office and position becoming vacant, to be filled by appointment or election according to law. Temporary appointments in the executive and judicial departments may be made by the President, to serve until the Senate shall fill said post or posts.

(b) If one of the parents of any offical mentioned in paragraph "a" of this section shall have been born in a foreign country at war, such official shall vacate his office as soon as the Senate shall appoint a successor to said position.

Section 3. Congress shall have power to provide legislation governing the technical details of enforcing this amendment.

The object of this amendment is to discourage a President, or other official with foreign connections, from endeavoring to plunge this nation into war.

If we had had this Amendment in 1917, Woodrow Wilson would have stayed out of World War I, F. D. Roosevelt would have worked for peace instead of war, both here and overseas, and we should probably not now be in World War II.

Suppose that we Americans, from 1922 on, had helped the German people establish a strong REPUBLICAN form of government—not like ours today, but provision similar to this suggested amendment XXIV, does anyone suppose that Hitler would have gone to war, knowing that on the day war began, he would lose his job as chancellor and leader?

Wouldn't it have been infinitely better for civilization? I say yes.

WOMEN OUTNUMBER MEN

For the first time in the history of our Republic, eligible women voters will this year outnumber the men, even if we count all men in the armed forces as being at home, according to the Census Bureau.

The number of women voters is approximately 43,648,000, while that of the men is 43,043,000, or more than 600,000 more women.

J. A. Rogers, the brilliant writer (of mixed colored-white pedigree), relates some interesting observation on this subject in the "Pittsburgh Courier".

Mr. Rogers thinks that this "female excess" is a sign of premature "old age" on the part of America, and that women will come down off their pedestal. Said he—

"When men outnumber women, it is the women who are catered to; when women outnumber men, it is the men who are (pampered).

"On certain South Sea Islands where men are few, due to war and the like, men are treated as gods.

"Some explorers who landed on one such island were made prisoners by the women and escaped only by saying that they had venereal disease. As it was they got off to their ship only under a shower of stones.

"In America where women had been fewer because the immigration was mostly male, women held a glittering position, that is, in comparison with European ones.

"A fact that struck me on my first visit to Europe was the general indifference of the men toward women.

"The American seemed to be a veritable woman worshipper in comparison with the Englishman.

"Nowhere in Europe did I see men gazing at women's legs as in America. To win such notice they'd have to be million-dollar legs or better.

"In EUROPE the women had to compete so much for the favor of men that women even in their later twenties were considered old. In fact, there were girls, young and pretty, who could not find a husband and hardly hoped to. Matrimonial agencies flourished. The men were

Court Upholds Free Speech Even if Wild

WASHINGTON,— The supreme court has ended its 1943-44 term by ruling that "immoderate and vicious invective" is not in itself sufficient proof for sedition convictions or revocation of naturalization papers unless the willful intent of the utterances is established "beyond a reasonable doubt."

The effect of the rulings was to tighten up on the degree of proof required for such convictions or revocations. In two separate cases involving the principle of proof, the tribunal:

1—Set aside, by a 5 to 4 split, the five year prison sentence imposed on Elmer Hartzel, World war I veteran, of Chicago, who was convicted of promoting insubordination and disloyalty among members of the armed forces by writing and distributing a series of articles which the government viewed as anti-Roosevelt, anti-Jewish and anti-British. Justice Frank Murphy held in the majority opinion that "an American citizen has the right to discuss these matters either by temperate reasoning or by immoderate and vicious invective", and that the evidence presented was insufficient for a jury to find Hartzell guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt".

2—Unanimously reversed lower court action revoking the citizenship of Carl Wilhelm Baumgartner, German born Kansas City utility worker, whose papers were canceled on grounds he maintained pro-German leanings and took his citizenship oath with reservations.

Justice Felix Frankfurter, the only naturalized citizen on the court, held in the unanimous opinion that the evidence was "not sufficiently compelling to require that he penalize a naturalized citizen for the expression of silly or even sinister sounding views which native born citizens could utter with impunity."

DEAL BLOW

The rulings apparently dealt a blow to the Department of Justice in its efforts to denaturalize Germans charged with anti-American propaganda, and efforts to convict citizens accused of impeding the war effort by spreading racial hatred.

Justice Frank Murphy delivered the opinion in the Hartzell case. In this case Justices Reed, Frankfurter, Douglas, and Jackson dissented.

Hartzell's conviction was based on the mailing of scurrilous pamphlets to the commanding general of the Air Forces, to a Colonel Hastings of the general staff and others.

Bund Tieup No Ban on Citizenship

VON DREDEN, MUNDKOWSKI, HEUSCHLE, MUEHLKE EXHONERATED

LOS ANGELES,— The prewar membership in the German-American bund does not constitute sufficient cause for cancellation of citizenship, Federal Judge Peirson M. Hall has ruled.

Judge Hall discussed government charge against 22 former bund members, ruling that they were within the rights guaranteed by the Constitution in joining such an organization in peacetime.

He temporarily withheld ruling on one defendant, Frederich Carl Mensing who admittedly was a member of the Nazi party in addition to belonging to the bund, but later, Judge Hall also dismissed the charges again Mensing.

Judge Hall maintained that the government had failed to establish a sufficient cause of action against the 22 on charges of fraudulent citizenship.

He ordered all evidence concerning this charge stricken from the records, ruling that the government had not presented any facts to show that the 21 bundists—all naturalized citizens—had obtained their papers by fraud.

Judge Hall's ruling carried a sizzling criticism of the government's prosecution, rapping federal authorities for hailing the defendants to court to stand "a possible destruction of reputation which can come from a mere accusation of fraud.

"By permitting a little less and a little less to be stated in a complaint, which compels persons to hire lawyers, come to court, get witnesses and stand trial, the rights of persons are violated," he ruled.

He said the defendants had been taught that the first amendment to the Constitution guaranteed specific rights and freedom.

"Now the government cannot penalize them for exercising these rights," he said.

In addition to Mensing, the defendants winning dismissal of charges were:

San Diegans enonerated by the court are:

Frank Muehlke, Ernest von Dreden, Ernest B. Mundkowski, Karl Heuschle.

LOS ANGELES FRIENDS HELP DEFENDANTS

I made a trip to Los Angeles to take a look at a roomful of books, clippings and magazines left in the estate of a reader of The Broom who recently passed away. While there, friends of some of the 29 defendants in Washington gave me funds to forward to Robert Noble $10; Ellis O. Jones $10; Frank K. Ferenz $12; Hans Diebel, Herman Schwinn, Klapprot and Kunze $7 each. Of course I was happy to do so immediately and also forwarded personal messages to them.

With Apologies to Good Iowans

Dear de Aryan:

Just read the current issue of the Broom, and the new developments in the mass sedition trial. The fact that the presiding Justice in that case is from Iowa, reminds me of an actual happening here in Pueblo back in the days when Colorado was still slightly wild and woolly.

Back in those days, some 40 or more years ago, we had a Judge on the District bench here whose demeanor was that of an old "Sourpuss", but who never-the-less had an active sense of humor. This old Judge had previously lived for a short period in Iowa and he heartily detested the Iowa statutes, a fact known to most of our attorneys. In practicing before him, the biggest mistake a lawyer could make was to cite Iowa statutes or cases.

One day there was an important trial coming on before Judge Sourpuss, and one of the lawyers in the case was recently from Iowa and was unacquainted with the Judge's prejudices concerning that State. This lawyer carted four or five armloads of Iowa statutes and reports into the courtroom. The lawyer's table being crowded with brief cases and papers, the former Iowa attorney had to pile his books on the floor alongside the table. Presently Judge Sourpuss entered the courtroom preparatory to opening court and noticed the big pile of books on the floor, the Judge stopped and looked them over. He observed that they were mostly Iowa stuff.

The Judge took his place on the bench and the bailiff, rapping for silence, intoned the usual "Hear ye, Hear ye, Hear ye, etc."

The proceedings had hardly more than opened when a stray dog wandered into the courtroom. No one particularly noticed the canine until he wandered up to the pile of books on the floor. After sniffing them diligently for a moment, the animal altered his position slightly and raised one of his hind legs after the usual manner of dogs.

Just about this time the bailiff observed the animal and what he was about to do. Wildly excited the Bailiff jumped up and made for the dog, yelling "Get that dog out of here; get that dog out of here".

Judge Sourpuss, with a very faint grin playing about his mouth, raised his head and looked at the dog; then banged his desk with his gavel and said:—"Just leave that dog alone. His judgment about the Iowa statutes is good. In fact, its exactly the same as my own. Proceed Mr. Attorney."

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF SOVIET ATHEISTS SUPPORT RUSSIA

The growth of pro-Nazi ideas in the Soviet Union since the Hitler-Stalin Pact was revealed in the following amazing "ten commandments" published in Moscow in the recent issue of "Bazbozlinik" (The Godless) organ of the Soviet atheist movement and reported by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, release of May 6—either 1940 or 1941.

(1) Whoever opposes Soviet-German co-operation is an enemy of the Soviet Government and Communism.

(2) Germany and the Soviet are unitedly fighting against capitalism, against religion and for a new social order.

(3) The German nation, like the Soviet people are against religion and for Socialism.

(4) The German-Soviet Pact killed the war campaign conducted by the Church.

(5) Stalin and Hitler are against religion and capitalism.

(6) The Pact with Germany resulted in creation of new political positions for the Soviet in Northern and Eastern Europe.

(7) The political and economic structure are not yet the same.

(8) It is already clear that after the war Germany will have to continue on the road to real Communism.

(9) Owing to the co-operation with Germany it has been made possible for Communism to penetrate into other countries.

(10) Stalin requires loyalty to Communism, world revolution and atheism.

SOLAR AIRCRAFT NEWS

San Diego is planning a four-point "balanced" postwar development, Albert Reader, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's post war committee, told members of the Solar Aircraft Company Supervisors Association at its recent dinner-meeting at the San Diego Hotel. Art Steed, association president, presided.

Reader explained the committee's broad-visioned program and said that the "four pillars of our post war development is based on industry, the Navy, agriculture, and the tourist trade."

Bob Williams of Convair explained a proposed amendment to the constitution of the National Association of Foremen, of which the local unit is a member, but no action was taken. The showing of pictures followed.

For the second time this year, Solar Aircraft Company finished an entire week without a single case of absenteeism, according to E. E. Binger, personnel and employment manager of the local aircraft plant.

Binger reported that the week ending June 3 was a hundred percent attendance, believed to be a record in local plants.

The personnel manager pointed out that all persons were present except those excused for justifiable cause.

"It is a real pleasure to make a report such as this, which does much to offset some of the reports which are being circulated, possibly by people anxious to disrupt our serious work effort", Binger said.

LOOKING AHEAD

Prosperity

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

A TOILING tenant farmer with several children became suddenly wealthy. A forgotten relative in another state died, leaving him a desirable farm, well equipped. The family hurried to move and take possession but, after three years, they returned to their former diggings as sharecroppers. They complained that times had been hard; only one prosperous year. That was the first year, when they mortgaged the farm.

It is not uncommon to hear people say prosperous when they mean flush, but the words are not akin; the ideas are not alike. Squandering borrowed money is not prosperity. It is the enemy of prosperity. A thief in an underworld den buying drinks for the house is flush, not prosperous. On the other hand, a thrifty farmer who builds a fertile field out of an eroded hillside is prosperous although he may have no cash.

Prodigal Leadership MANY prosperous people in America this year are doing constructive things, helping to hasten victory and safeguard a lasting peace. Some are wisely freezing their good incomes by investing in war bonds — which amounts to buying dollar bills at 75¢ apiece for future delivery. But others are only flush, foolishly spending cash for what they consider fun, buying baubles with little or no post-war value.

Unwise citizens are not alone to blame. Our government has set them an unmistakable example, spending recklessly and wasting money on things that are worse than useless; downright harmful to human freedom. The foolish spendthrift who wastes his wages will suffer for his own prodigal deeds, but it is the prosperous and thrifty in America who will finally pay for the blunders of public servants.

We Borrow And Spend COMPARED to other countries, the United States is financially strong but, as a nation, we are not prospering during the war. Wars, by their very nature, are destructive and currently we are spending money about twice as fast as our taxpayers are supplying it. Sad to say, it is not all being spent for liberty and peace. Like the newly-rich sharecropper, we have mortgaged our home and are squandering the money.

The executive department of the federal government has a monthly payroll of 650 million dollars. This sustains three million employees; more than three times as many as were feeding off that department when World War I ended. Government is pampering many incompetents, doing them no permanent good. Moreover siphoning off America's wealth to remote and desolate lands, through such extravagant mediums as Arctic pipelines, serves only to weaken America.

Swiftly our national debt of 175 billion dollars approaches what used to be considered the value of the nation's real estate. None of us can prosper in a bankrupt country; taxes would never permit it. All patriotic citizens have a grave, mutual problem and look to Congress for its solution: This nation must now conserve its financial strength in order to prevent insolvency at the close of the war.

The American Woman

In this issue Washington Adams presents some very valuable quotations from J. A. Rogers, conearning the results where and when women outnumber men. I shall repeat just two items and comment about it:

"A fact that struck me on my first visit to Europe was the general indifference of the men toward women.

"The American seemed to be a veritable woman worshipper in comparison with the Englishman.."

Washington Adams agrees with Rogers that the reason for the respect we show women is that in America "women had been fewer because the immigration was mostly male".

Adams predicts that with the wars, men will become even scarcer and since already we have more women voters than men, European conditions will prevail in America also. And that is how "they planned it"! Never forget that!

As long as the American man worships the American woman, opportunity beckons and humanity is progreessing. When the woman-worship stops the higher progress of the race stops with it.

I, for one, am certain that my inborn worship of woman is my redeeming feature, is what gives me the courage to go on. Ask any man, who is a man, whether he be a fighter or a worker, whether the thought of the woman he loves does not generate new staying powers in him when the going gets hard?!

America was comparatively a free country, of free enterprise, of freedom to think, speak and worship so long as women were kept upon a pedestal. With the downfall of women who emulated the vices of the males, America has also lost its own internal freedom of opportunity and its government has become as corrupted as it is in Europe.

The human mind, the human soul and spirit must have an ideal, must have a daily reminder of the beautiful, sacred, lovely thought HERE, now, in this MATERIAL world, otherwise men become beasts, and women, too. They become beasts of burden who just work and pay taxes, or they become beasts of prey, Tories, Communists and Militarists. The real American is distinguished from them by being proudly a man who does his part from choice, not because he is regimented. Neither does he care to hold others in subjection.

When men took their hats off in the presence of women; when young girls were taught by their mothers to be ladies, and men in their presence refrained from coarse actions and language, the nobler side of men and women found daily expression and fulfillment. There was nourishment for the soul. Woman was the last refuge for something better than the coarseness of the struggle for existence. That is why the nation imagined that giving woman the vote would lift up government to the level of nobility and purity, as we were wont to idealize our women.

But "they planned it" otherwise. They introduced coarseness in "amusements". A drunken woman, a lewd woman was a horror in the "horse and buggy days", but with Hollywood and Broadway running the "show" business, corruption set in and the results are evident. The press and story-magazines followed the "show" business in corruption.

The other day a young woman was introduced to me in a Christian home. In no time the new acquaintance used the term "son of a — — " as common place as if she were "a man among men". That tells the story.

And with the downfall of woman, the nation has fallen upon evil days. Of course, our women are not perfect, are not yet goddesses, but as long as we respect them as if they were, we still have respect for the DIVINE in THIS life. It helps them to strive for refinement and it helps us to exercise self-restraint in their company. It improves us both. This worship is really manna to her soul and makes a better woman of her, and having set our goal we have a moment of STOP and THINK, when suddenly, because a lady is present, we change the tenor of our language out of deference to her. And even that little bit of a chance, to while one moment in a better world, keeps us better men, and women.

In Europe Rogers noted that men treat women differently, and Europe has always been different from us, too. But in the land where women were worshipped, there birth was given to a new world and this is the world of the future: for women love and when they love they don't want their loved ones cheated of the good things of life, robbed, betrayed, murdering each other. That love must rule.

The level of womanhood is the level of mankind. Coarse women make beastly men, murderous men. Noble women, who still think of matrimony and of motherhood as their divine mission, lifts the race out of hell.

Preventing War by Constitutional Amendments

When the Kellog Peace Pact was proposed, I opposed it. Throwing sand into people's eyes is not going to prevent war. All these pacts and preventives are pure eyewash, they are not worth the paper they are written on.

Washington Adams in todays column hopes to prevent presidents from getting us into war by suggesting a few amendments. But presidents are mere cats' paws. The war makers will use whatever other tools come in handier after all the pacts and amendments have been piously written down and accepted as the law of the land.

We have a Bill of Rights, and much good does it do us. Radio is controlled, the press is rationed and those who oppose tyranny are called "anti-Semites" and "conspirators with the Nazis". Then they are indicted by subservient and ignorant Grand Juries and railroaded thru the American equivalent of Hitler's 'Volksgericht' (Mob-rule-court) by punishing and persecuting the attorneys who dare insist on due process of law during the trial.

Where there is no fear of, and respect for GOD, no amount of pacts and constitutional amendments is going to change the beast. Like President Roosevelt, our public servants (sic!), take oaths that have lost all meaning and they say prayers which are directives to the Lord what to do, poor fellow!

Religion is the only protection of good faith. Where religion is perverted so that instead of obeying the Lord and His comandments, the president TELLS the Lord, in public prayers what he expects the Lord to do, even instructing HIM to help kill people, all spiritual restraint is removed that kept men from comitting crimes and glorying in it.

Washington Adams is a good Republican, but if he wants to eliminate trade wars he will have to eliminiate tariff walls and stand for free trade.

If Adams wants the economic conditions within nations brought upon a level of equity, that each individual may reap according to his labors, then Adams will have to advocate the Henry George method of raising public revenue. These are the only political and economic remedies for existing political and economic ills. As long as private property is confiscated by the government in the form of taxes, the people are never secure in their possessions and with economic security gone, dictatorship has arrived.

Wars are a means of letting off pus. People who are placing their faith in ferocity, must learn through bitter experience that the world is not improved when German dictators conscript their youth and Americans emulate them by doing likewise. This worship of ferocity must explode itself through awfully bitter experience. Men who believe in murdering for a living and have a perverted concept of Creation, imagining that the all-wise Creator made us ferocious beasts so that we have to murder other animals to live, such a generation must pay back pound for pound through anguish and suffering for the horrors they inflict upon the animal kingdom.

Adams can introduce all the amendments he wants. We can rebuild all the structures of every government on earth, but as long as men imagine that they must kill to eat and live, wars will repeat themselves with clocklike regularity, for God cannot be mocked and whatever you sow that also shall you reap.

95% OF ALL JEWS BACK FDR FOR 4th TERM

NEW YORK,— Commenting on the political prospects of Persident Roosevelt and Governor Dewey in the 1944 Presidential campaign, the New York Daily News notes editorially that 95 per sent of Jewish voters cast their ballots for President Roosevelt in 1940, and that the Jewish voters appear to be as strongly for President Roosevelt (now) as they were in 1940. This, the editorial alleges, is because political feelings of recent immigrants are largely influenced by European problems. The newspaper observes in this connection that White American Protestant voters seem chiefly affected by old domestic issues. . . .

KIMMEL, SHORT TESTIMONY DENIED 'SEDITION' DEFENSE

WASHINGTON,— Judge Edward C. Eicher, presiding at the mass 'sedition conspiracy' trial, has denied a defense motion that depositions be taken from Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short, navy and army commanders in Hawaii at the time of the Japanese attack.

Eicher said the motion, filed by James L. Laughlin in behalf of two of the 29 defendants, failed to set forth any facts to show that the testimony would be "relevant to any issues" in the trial.

WHAT WOULD I DO IF I HAD 10 MORE DAYS TO LIVE

Dear Sir:

Months ago I have wished to thank you for the old numbers of the "Broom" your office was so kind to send me and out of which I get so much enjoyment and satisfaction. The time you came to the Embassy Hall to one of the meetings I was there and heard your speech. I have so much satisfaction of hearing fearless people uphold our Constitution, justice, the truth and Right and all the other noble attributes; of course.. The article with the caption "What would I do if I had only 10 more days to live?" is just expressing my very own sentiment. And many, many more articles speak my feelings that we had many more fearless editors like you to teach the wishi-washie public a few lessons of nobler attitudes! But there are too many sheep with chicken grains, I fear! I was quite alive as just an ordinary citizen, to politics; but when the "Third term" was decided upon, I gave it up.

Wish you all the luck in the world. You deserve it, for U. S. sake. — — LOS ANGELES.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I thank you for the copies of your truth telling paper. I enjoyed it very much. I should have answered when you sent some others before. I received them all. I feel so sorry for our 30 great men and women on trial for telling the truth. I went to Mr. Jones and Mr. Noble's meetings. I really realize what a mess our great country is in. God sure will help them with all of their friends back of them. I am sending $5., $2.50 for my subscription and the rest to go for the best of those that you see fit. I am pulling with all my soul for them all. I wish I could say here now, I feel I know who is holding the axe over them. I am 70 years next July 6th. I am marching with you for freedom.

I am sincerely, with best wishes,

Economic Equity

By Chas. H. Ingersoll

(THE ORIGINAL $ WATCH MAKER)

NEW YORK,—Our government has, to say the least, given much aid and comfort to the traditional enemies of THE PROFIT SYSTEM, i. e. capitalism. There are Unionism as an integral part of Communism. BUT in its conduct of the recent drive to sell 15 billion dollars of bonds, it was deemed UNSAFE to disemploy methods of standard practice and efficiency.

Chas. H. Ingersoll

So our Treasury Department did what the USSR has several times in its history done, come down to the good old system of PIECE WORK, under the fancy name of INCENTIVE pay. An incident that should be made to start TEACHING CAPITALISM.

Teaching Capitalism should mean TEACHING ALL OF IT! We've never yet operated capitalism. So far we've permitted it to be all tangled up with monopoly—BASIC monopoly.

Result is that both it (capitalism) and its equal partner in production, labor, have been ROBBED of about half the mutual PRODUCT—or wages and profits—by this monopoly.

So comes along K. Marx with his communistic contraption and like Little Alice (who saw trees waving and thought they made the wind blow!) saw labor was underpaid, charged it up to THE BOSS (the paymaster) and started 'the class struggle'—the labor war that has come to be civil war.

Nothing would have happened, favoring this ridiculous Marx idea, had not a few of our 'INTELLIGENTSIA' fallen for it: fellows like Frankfurter, Tugwell, Thomas, Sinclair, Browder who began impressing widening 'GROUPS' and especially in our 1500 colleges.

Then Mr. Browder integrated his groups into a 'united front' and UNIONISM was made the VEHICLE of carrying the Marxian gospel to our BIG POLITICS.

In fact Unionism BECAME big politics. The junction of these two kinds of big politics was fateful for FREE INDUSTRY and SOCIETY.

Am I stretching anything here? Is Capitalism o. k. but for its one fault of travelling with Monopoly? Is deserving of all the blame heaped on Capitalism? Is labor the blood-brother of Capital? Is Marxism a phoney remedy for labor's shortage of pay?

And is Unionism really a part of Communism? The answers are all affirmative and easily supportable by logic, fact and authority.

In these columns will be found conclusive demonstrations since that is my only objective: to clear up Capitalism's high road. Capitalism has marshalled the sciences in perfected wealth production: and only lacks scientific division of its production. I shall continue this talk about TEACHING CAPITALISM until all these and many others are are answered.

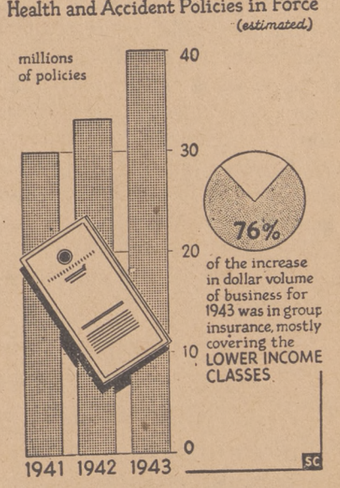
Health and Accident Policies in Force (estimated)



Emphasizing the increasing insistence on the part of the American public to be secured against disasters, this chart shows the rapid increase in distribution of health and accident insurance over the past three years. That most of the new policies went to people in lower income classes, through employers, labor unions, and other organizations, is clearly indicated by the fact that total premiums written increased $74,416,103 during 1943, of which amount 76%, or $56,717,284 was represented by increases in low premium group business.

"In PARIS, where there were something like a million more women than men, you'd see girls walking two by two in the Tuilleries or on the boulevards, hoping that some man would accost them. In the cafes it was the same. A note handed to the waiter would do the trick.

"In LONDON a likely male on the street was the target of feminine eyes.

"One evening I had a theatre date with a young woman. She was late, as usual, and as I stood on the corner waiting for her, 17 women gave me the glad eye while one of them actually picketed me in the hope my date wouldn't show up. And they weren't women of the street, either.

"In short, in every part of Europe women were easy to get and hard to get rid of.. Their plight in the matter of mating was tragic. And it's going to be worse after the war.

"There were writers even before 1939 who advocated polygamy to relieve the surplus of women. As for so-called illegitimate births, they were actually encouraged even before Mussolini and Hitler. In France and Germany, the illegitimate child is always gladly accepted by the State".

Rogers believes that somewhat similar conditions will prevail in the United States, after the war . . . He believes that as women go to business, marriages and babies decrease, and that "nations decline along with their birfhrate". Before 1939, this was happening in England, Germany and U. S.

Because the male is the vigorous, stronger, more adventuresome sex, national progress declines in a feminine civilization, and explains why such a premium was put upon boy babies . . In some parts of the world the birth of a girl baby was considered a misfortune . . . In China (once, at least) they were thrown into canals.

"Increase in our female population, under our present system", says Rogers, "means, in addition to lower wages, more prostitution, lesbianism and a lower standard of living, which in turn brings lowered physical and mental stability".

OUR CONCLUSION: Women voters should vote against the war-mongers!

BEGINNING OF THE END FOR GERMANY . . ATTENTION, PLATFORM COMMITTEE ! . . . SUGGESTED AMENDMENT: HOW PRESIDENTS AND SENATORS SHOULD BE ELECTED . . . . . .

WASHINGTON, June 12,—The Anglo-American invasion of France is the "beginning of the end" for Germany in this World War II. The ease with which the so-called Atlantic Wall was pierced confirms the suspicion that Americans have had for some time that the Germans were nearing exhaustion.

It has been nearly five years since the war started in Poland. The vibrant, vigorous, fanatical young Nazis of the 18 to 28 age class have practically all died on the field of battle or in sunken submarines.

The Russian people, in population about equal to that of the United States and the Germany of 1937 combined, destroyed millions of German men in the past three years. In many battles the Bolsheviks were five to ten times more numerous than the Nazis.

Today the Germans are using boys of 16 and 18 and men over 30—some as old as 50 and 60, They are short of food and wear ragged uniforms. Their war factories have been almost wiped out; their cities reduced to ashes. Perhaps as many as a million women and children have perished in the British and American air raids over Germany.

But the German people, like their racial cousins, the British, are of stoic fortitude; it is possible they may hold on until the civilization of France and Central Europe is destroyed,—or become so weakened that Communism will be welcomed, as appearing less hideous than starvation.

On the other hand, if we reveal to them their fate as a defeated people, and assure them that surrender does not mean annihilation and slavery, they may overthrow the Nazi dictatorship, thus shortening the war and possibly saving several million lives.

* * *

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE G. O. P. PLATFORM COMMITTEE:

DEAR PATRIOTS:

Our campaign platform this year should quiver with indignation at what the New Deal Bolsheviks have done and are doing to our great and beloved country.

The "Dealers" should be denounced as enemies of the American form of government, which they are seeking to subvert and destroy by sinister and subtilemeans. Give names, dates, facts and figures; call a spade a spade.

(1) JOIN US AS CO-MEMBERS

Address your appeal to all true patriots, the real Americans.

Don't ask them to "entrust the government to the Republicans". Oh no! Say to them that we believe in the "rule of the people, by the people", and ask them to JOIN WITH US IN SELF-GOVERNMENT; become a part of the new Administration—of Americans, for Americans and BY AMERICANS.

We want nothing less than from ONE-FIFTH to TWO-FIFTHS of the old-line DEMOCRATIC VOTERS to JOIN WITH OLD-LINE AMERICANS of the Republican faith in throwing out the RUSSIAN-NEW DEAL BUREAUCRATS in Washington, and restoring the Republic to its pristine liberty and greatness!

Study the Democratic platform of 1868 and 1900. We can find there words of inspiration and sentences that shout their indignation. Study also the Republican platform of 1900 and 1908. The last named roundly denounced the Democracy of that day as "socialism", which desired "government ownership" while the G. O. P. desired only "government regulation".

To borrow a sentence from that platform, we can say that "THE NEW DEAL SOCILAISTS OF TO-DAY WOULD HAVE THE NATION OWN THE PEOPLE, WHILE THE REPUBLICAN-DEMOCRATIC COALITION WOULD HAVE THE PEOPLE OWN THE NATION".

(2) FOREIGN "FOREIGN POLICY"

The New Deal must be denounced as a party of foreigners , for foreigners and by foreigners.

Its foreign policy is "foreign", un-American and Anti-American. Its "camarilla government", known as the "palace guard", is composed of those who were born abroad, those whose parents were born abroad, and one or two natives who are sycophants of the foreign clique.

This Administration is the perfect example of that "foreign influence", which Washington denounced and condemned as disastrous to our country.

In taking this stand, the G. O. P. will be supported by all persons of foreign birth who have become thoroughly Americanized. They, above all others, are shocked at seeing men of foreign birth directing our nation in the interest of foreign nations rather than in America's interest.

(3) NATIONALISM VS. INTERNATIONALISM

Every President prior to F. D. Roosevelt was an ardent "nationalist". Woodrow Wilson was the only one of the 30 prior to Roosevelt II to lean slightly toward "internationalism", which is only another name for "international socialism".

Churchill is a "nationalist" for England, and he is seeing to it that no one "lend-leases" the British Empire away. Stalin is a "nationalist" for Russia.

We seem to be the only country to even listen to "internationalist" nonsense.

(4) FOR A GOVERNMENT OF LAWS

With millions of morons, the office glamors the man. If we put up a man to run against Roosevelt, the great "dictator" or "fuehrer" (meaning "leader")—"man against man", it will be a contest for the position of elected dictator, and the man with the greater "glamor" may attract enough "boobs" to counterbalance the enlightened voters, and FDR might win again.

But if we stand for a "government of LAWS, and not of men"; and clearly set forth our principles in a stinging, ringing platform; forcing our candidates for President and Vice-President and for Congress to fight NOT on personality but on PRINCIPLE, WE CAN WIN HANDS DOWN.

We must HALT the New Deal Juggernaut NOW, or it will destroy the Republic . . . That is the greatest issue of all..

We must HALT the EXTRAVAGANCE, the waste, the incompetence, the government by EMOTION and HATE, and substitute government by REASON and LOVE.

Bryan ran against McKinley in 1896. If it had been a race of "man" against "man", Bryan might have won. But the personality of the men, history tells us, hardly entered into it at all.

That was a battle of "principles"—the "Gold Standard vs. Bimetalism". Practically everybody voted on the issue, and not at all upon the man. And McKinley was elected, because people voted "REPUBLICAN", in favor of what they called "honest money"—the Gold standard.

One reason that Willkie lost in 1940 (aside from the fact that many saw that he was a "social democrat" and not a Republican), was largely because the fight was NOT on principle.

Willkie approved too much of Roosevelt's socialism, and never until near the end fought on real American issues. His vote was simply an Anti-Roosevelt vote, and his freak campaign earned him defeat.

WE MUST INSIST THAT OUR CANDIDATE RUN ON "ISSUES" AND NOT ON HIS PERSONALITY, while we condemn Roosevelt for running a "personal" one-man government.

He must be condemned for failing to keep his word.

I must crowd seven other recommendations into this plea to the Republican Platform Committee:

5. The New Deal is the ONLY ADMINISTRATION in our history to call itself the GOVERNMENT. In a republic the "adminstrators" of the government cannot be the government. The personnel of the U. S. Government may be divided into: 66% the Congress, 24% the executive department, and 10% the judiciary. The Democratic Platform of 1868 showed just what Congress can do. (See South Trimble's "Platforms of Political Parties".)

6. The New Deal has been guilty of more than 100 violations of our Constitution.

7. The executive is guilty of the despotic usurpation of the legislative power. (Predicted in Washington's "Farewell Address" and Hamilton's "Federalist Papers".)

8. The New Deal is the PARTY OF POLITICAL PERSECUTION,— the ONLY party in 140 years to indict and persecute persons for political criticisms. Such actions in 1798-1800 killed the old Federalist party.

9. It is the most extravagant regime in the history of the human race. Lack of opposition gave it "all sail and no anchor". Its end—national bankruptcy.

10. Its "four freedoms" are fraudulent demagoguery.. It is the enemy of free thought and free speech; unchristian and irreligious; preacher of hate and revenge; instiller of more fear and coddler of more "want" than any other administraiton in our history. Mr. Roosevelt's speeches (stated to be written by Rosenman) have never contained the word "Christ", and now a "millenium" is promised by these "Dealers" without the interposition of Christ or one single Christian principle.

FOR A FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT — — ELECTION OF SENATORS AND EXECUTIVES

AMENDMENT XXV—Section 1. In America, as in every country on earth, the less intelligent outnumber the more intelligent. In keeping with the ideals of our Founding Fathers, it is hereby re-established that, as far as possible, the intelligent and thrifty minority shall have a voice in elections equal to that of the less informed majority, one acting as a check upon the other.

Section 2. All State Senators shall be elected exclusively by taxpayers who own land. The lower houses of each State (of representatives or delegates) shall be elected by the masses, subject to such intelligence tests or other requirements as the legislatures may provide for voters.

Section 3. The Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth articles of Amendment to the Constitution of the United States are hereby repealed. United States Senators shall be elected by a majority vote of the State Senators of each State, to serve six years as provided by the Constitution.

Section 4. National political conventions for nominating candidates for President and Vice-President are forbidden. The President and Vice-President shall be selected and elected by electors, who shall be appointed by the State Legislators, as provided by Article II, Section 1, of the Constitution.

(REMARKS. We are the only important country in the world which submits its chief executive to the DEMAGOGUERY of nomination by a mob-mass (illegal) convention and to the DEMAGOGIC APPROVAL OF THE UNINFORMED MASSES. The first national nomination convention was held in 1832. It has reduced the standard of American statesmanship . . . The State of South Carolina continued to appoint its electors by its legislature until 1868.)

(MORE AMENDMENTS LATER).

"Purge Trial" to Continue, Despite Supreme Court Reversal Of Similar "Sedition" Case

Eight Weeks of Trial Fail to Connect Defendants in Any Way With Armed Forces

WASHINGTON (Special) June 12,— Today opened the ninth week of the Administration's "purge" trial of its critics, without one iota of evidence having been introduced to indicate a "Conspiracy" or that anyone of the 29 defendants ever contacted any member of the ermed forces to induce insubordination, as alleged in the weird indictment.

While Henry J. Nord, deputy collector of customs at Los Angeles, was exhibiting to the jury some 50,000 names of prominent American citizens to whom he alleged that World Service of Germany had sent unmailable matter, assailing world Jewry, which was destroyed by the customs in 1941, the U. S. Supreme Court was handing down a "free speech" decision.

HIGH COURT FREES HARTZELL

Justice Frank Murphy delivered the majority opinion in the 5 to 4 decision, freeing Elmer Hartzell of Chicago, serving a five-year sentence for violation of the same act the 29 are being tried under. Justices Stone, Roberts, Rutledge and Black concurred.

The dissenting justices were Frankfurter, Jackson, Douglas and Reed.

This is the first "sedition" decision during this war. Hartzell had sent out to prominent army officials and others pamphlets attacking in "scurrilous" language Roosevelt, the British and the Jews during the war.

The court could find no proof, "beyond a reasonable doubt", that his intent was to cause insubordination in the army, and his conviction was overthrown.

This conviction reversal greatly pleased the defendants and their lawyers. They said, "this kills the 'mass conspiracy trial' absolutely".

ROGGE SAYS TRIAL WON'T HALT

"The Justice Department", said Prosecutor Rogge, foresaw the possibility of this Hartzell decision, but will rely on earlier decisions governing cases of the first World War."

"But", say the defense, "how can that be, when this indictment is not brought under the World War Act, 'Sec. 34 of Title 50, U. S. C.'?

"It is brought under the Act of June 28, 1940, and this is the first pronouncement of the court thereon ! ! ! ! "

DEFENSE CRIES "PERSECUTION"

The defense sees certain reversal now, if this "mass" case should result in conviction. But they also believe that judge and prosecutor are determined to push the case through, for a conviction, even if they think reversal is likely in the end.

THE OBJECT IS TO TERRORIZE THE NATION'S PRESS ! — say the defense.

GISSIBL FOR DEFENSE

The cross-examination of Peter Gissibl, former Bund leader, by Defense Attorney Maximillian St. George of Chicago, was a masterpiece, and resulted in the prosecution's chief witness (thus far) admitting that the defendants never conspired with the Bund, nor did the Bund conspire with anyone against this government or to affect the morale of the armed forces . . . He also admitted being made a sort of "professional witness" by the Justice Department, having testified about 17 times in cases against German-Americans . . . He was once a witness before the Dies committee.

Among the names turned in by Nord were those of John D. Rockefeller, Owen D. Young, Eleanor Roosevelt, Roosevelt Steamship Co., Frank Kingdon, Corlis Lamont, Senator Bankhead, Justices Black and Byrnes, besides some of the defendants, who were on the mailing list of World Service in Germany.

The prosecution says it has some 198 more witnesses and 2,980 documents to present . . . FDR should be out of office before these are shown.

Please find enclosed $1.30 for six months subscription to the "Broom".

If you have the back numbers beginning May 1st, 1944, I would like the sub. to begin with the first May number. So far as I know the "Broom" is the only paper giving a detailed correct account of the so-called sedition trial in Washington. The "Broom", dated May 8th gives a good description of the trial. Would like to have a copy of the May 8th edition.
